"Down In Flames"

Hey - where'd you go?
You left me alone and so cold.
All I need is a clue
as to how this could all be real...

Hey! Is this fate? Or just bad luck?
Why debate? When we could fight this!
Hey! - Break a leg and walk it off.
Then go down - screaming "I don't want this!"

Here we are - this wasted space.
No signs of life - there's no trace.

So grab a friend and raise a glass to going down in flames...

Hey! Is this fate? Or just bad luck?
Why debate? When we could fight this!
Hey! - break a leg and walk it off.
The go down - screaming "I don't want this!"
Screaming "I don't want this!"...
