"Glass Apple"

Dark dreams of late Her light sneaks within my reach to blind out the sight of my last days We scream out the sound of a new wave

Earth Iris turn infinite star Cradle life and wake up your heart
and mind this time
Over and over again, you're mine

Breathe free again
This mask of captor or pit of sand that blinds out the sight of your past day and screams the sound of a new wave

Earth Iris turn infinite star
Cradle life and wake up your heart
and mind this time

Over and over again, you're mine...
You're mine

run... run... run... run...
Through the meadow where weeping willows hide the light

Earth Iris turn infinite star
Cradle life and wake up your heart
and mind this time
Over and over again, you're mine...
You're mine

My Nightly guide
My rose starved of colour
This glass apple hides a heart
