Animals falling from the stars
Shadow mine my counterpart Leading heart on tribal road
No Eyes

Senses weep for you and I to taste and face your lonely sky hand in hand we'll breed the night my interval

hours collide
This second you have me, my beauty, my same
A replica I find in you, two hands that will remain
The gears of life, they grind away, these seconds keep us sane
To think alike, analogous minds, one alike and same

Conceive the son in waters age this great year will wash away Mithras past, echos of the same In Time

This miracle alone I know for tribes of fear tear worlds apart under stars our world will lie no end in sight

hours collide
This second you have me, my beauty, my same
A replica I find in you, two hands that will remain
The gears of life, they grind away, these seconds keep
To think alike, analogous minds, one alike and same

Shine five sided star Clone this lonely heart ooh
This second you have me, my beauty, my same

Wheels within wheels our blood has symmetry
Two stars combined descendants of infinity
