The dark Horde attacked our Land.
Iâ€™m rising my Sword for the final Command
Death is much better than Slave
My Body is broken, my Spirit Prevails.

Before I have fallen to Ground
I already Stroke Many Enemies down
The Northlight shines high in the Sky

Can you hear the ancient call
Far away I can see the golden hall

And tonight the Valkries fly
They will carry me into the night
When my oath is sworn, I hear Heimdalls horn
And tonight the Valkries fly

Gide me to the warriors hall
I look down to midgard from high above
Take me through darkness and rain
Up to the world where true heroes reign

Odin.Iâ€™ll give what Iâ€™ve got
And I swear allegiance, oh king of the gods
Waiting for the mission ahead
To fight by your side in ragnarÃ¶k

Can you hear the ancient call
Far away I can see the golden hall

And tonight the Valkries fly
They will carry me into the night
When my oath is sworn, I hear Heimdalls horn
And tonight the Valkries fly
