Look into the mirror, Honey, what do you see with your thousand eyes, do you see me let them touch you inside, smile that sick sweet smile begging them to use you, so you can cry for a while

Put them all in cages, used and violated,
I want to hear them scream, so I can smile again

No body ever, ever leaves me, I want to put you, inside
so you can feel, just what i feel, i want to put you inside Slipping on Honey, slipping on Honey, slipping on Honey, yeah

Face like the broken doll you'll never be, scars on your wrists from twisted ecstasy The root of your evil lies between your thighs close your fucking legs and open up your eyes

Daddy I want to hurt you, you fucked me in my head, why did you go and leave me, bleeding on my bed ~~ÃfÂçâ, -Ã,Â!~~ bleeding on my bed

No body ever, ever leaves me, i want to put you inside
so you can feel , just what i feel, i want to put you inside
Slipping on Honey, slipping on Honey, slipping on Honey, yeah
