Weathered body saddened face
All the times she's been a phase
Trophy life a useless waste
It will always be her pain
Just an object used til dawn
Yeah she knows hell never care
Every day so fucking torn
It's all shell every know
She settles for second best
Every time every night
Crying shame she ain't the same
But it will always be her pain
Just an object used till dawn
Yeah she knows hell never care
Wasting life spent as a pawn
It's all shell ever know
Try to give something get nothing back
Wasted your a pride a cheap side
All she knows is how to be abused
Gotta understand there's something more
Lay it on the line lay it on the line!
Shell never knows she worth so much more
Lay it on the line! lay it on the line
Shell never know she's worth so much more
You'll never be the one his only rising sun
You say there's nothing you can do
Girl there's nothing you can't do
