It's out of my hands
All we ever had fucking time destroys me
But not like you, you erode me
Wouldn't have it any other way
And I couldn't have it any other way
My search for devotion is wearing very thin
Excess fucking emotion
And I can't just shake the burden
I'll never shake this burden
As these clocks tick they echo in my mind
Hours weeks spent without you
It's dead romantic like a sinking ship
Kill all the sad songs fuck them all
My search for devotion is wearing very thin
Excess fucking emotion
And I can't just shake the burden
I'll never shake this burden
Live in dreams it's the only way
The dreams you live happy
The dreams you die content
It's all I ask for
I just can't wait until the end
Until my last breath
