Want to lengthen the moment
I'll never be like them
Memories from school,
A mess in my room
I want nostalgia
Not let sleep
I could not fight.
They say she lives in the sky or at sea
Not like everyone else, submarine rises.

No one gets close to
And if you say you love
You broken heart
Choosing me of all
All the girls in the world
I will not take you there
That taught me silence
I'm still waiting.

I like long hands
Without having to hold
They say she was hiding Wings
Great coat blue
She flies and to not give closer
And if you say you love
You broken heart
Selected in all
All the girls in the world.

They say do not trust it to the world
She always reply to you Silence
I'm still waiting.

No one gets close to...

Want to lengthen the moment forever.
