In the end I'll turn into sand;
I know it's my destiny...

Ah, I'm dreaming
Of a future
That knows no bounds.
Don't laugh at me;
I know
That happiness is temporary --
I'm going to wait for the shining wind
While chewing on that.

Tiny Star --
Take a look...
Oh, shining stars
We are one of you.
Beautiful World --
Even I
Was born into this world
For a reason.
Tiny Star --
If you're crying
In that place,
Then I will be there to hold you.
Tiny Star --
Though it's hard to breath,
And it hurts now,
Let's take a step forward.

(Yeah...)

The proper path
Is unknown to everyone...

Hey, I'm sure
That by losing it,
I'll finally realize
That I loved it.
I'll realize that all of it,
All of the boring everyday landscapes,
Were tiny miracles.

Tiny Star --
The diorama world
Destroys the sky
Heartlessly...
Helpless World --
Even though I struggled,
In the end I'll turn into sand;
I know it's my destiny.
Tiny Star --
I want to leave
Permanent footprints,
And our story behind.
Tiny Star --
Though our lives are so short,
It feels useless;
Let's make the most of them.

(Yeah...)

There will never be anyone
Like me again...
Instead of hanging my head down,
I'll look up into the air.

Tiny Star --
Take a look...
Look up into space...
We are one of them.
Endless World --
Even I
Was born into this world
For a reason.
Tiny Star --
Seeing you smile
In this place
Fills me with joy.
Tiny Star --
Let's walk forward now,
Through the stifling
Bright light.

(Yeah... La La La La...)
(Ooh...)
