(Chorus) girl you've made me laugh and you've made me cry, you've made it so that it hurts for me to say goodbye but girl today you've made me feel a way I never felt before about anyone so I think I'm in love with you, yea I think I'm in love with u

(Verse 1) I don't just love you cause ur beautiful I also love ur personality I love that u don't care about school and u are really funny and really cool and if u don't think u are then ur a fool girl open your beautiful eyes and see what's been in front of you the whole time Â its me when I first saw yall I fell in love immeadiatly and to this day I'm dreamin you would say that u love me I can't stand how I feel that's how I know that this love is real I'm always wishin we be kissin but it's a fantasy Â cause I may love u but u don't love me I tried acting cool I tried acting funny I even tried to bribe u with money I followed u around acted like a class clown and u would always turn me down but wait till karma comes around and I'm not there for you even though I said I'll always adore you and I do everything for you I even get scared talking to ya even though wat I say seems to go right thru ya I say I love you u say "do ya?" well what do you think? it's pretty self explainitory I'm not lucky I will never taste the glory of being with u if u do something I'd copy u now do u see that I'm in love with you?

(Chorus) girl you've made me laugh and you've made me cry, you've made it so that it hurts for me to say goodbye but girl today you've made me feel a way I never felt before about anyone so I think I'm in love with you, yea I think I'm in love with u
