It's just me (x5)

I can't help who I am
Hate myself wish I can
Go to hell and start again
Yeah just wanna close my eyes
And die tonite
I try to fight
Tha fact that it's appearing Â that I'm dealing With a Â feeling that is healing her
But really it's just peeling me apart
I'm kneeling in the dark
While I'm bleeding and I'm scarred
This pain is eating at my heart
It really hurts so much
It hurts too much to touch
But when I cut I get a rush
So I cut until I gush cuz it's a must Fuck this life because it sucks
But I like this Knife Called Lust
Despite this fight is tuff
I just can't abide or hide
The fact that I've been lied to
By you
I don't know why I tried toÂ
Tie you down
Now I'm a clown
For fallin for yaÂ
But just go he's callin Â for ya
So turn around bitch Â just leave
I can't help it it's just me
But please keep trying
Please I'm dying
I need you to cease my crying
I see Â you and it's Â peace I find
But I need to atleast go blind
Cause all I see:
Black hallways deepÂ
I close my eyes and always sleep
I dream about my music life
I scream and shout "Shit! Screw this life!"

It looks just like I threw this knife
Into the right idea
But at night I tear
And makeup smears
I feel I loose
I've been abused and used
It's just too cute for you too choose
So all I do is listen to Deuce and Truth some Jeffree Star,
Em, Dre, Pac and Colette Carr
And when they stop that's when we start
Breaking hearts
It aint that hard

It's just me (x6)

We all make mistakes, you gotta learn to forgive
When you learn how to love then you know how to live
To recieve you gotta give Â its a tease yes it is
But we breathe for these kids
On our knees just to give An offering
This society is softening
We let these feelings burn away
And when we heal we run astray
It's fun to say someones to blame
I hate to say I'm made this way
But everyday I feel the same
Is this real- this game?
Cuz all I feel is pain
This game is just to damn insane

It's just me (x6)
(You discust me, but it's just me) ahahaha

Sick with myself but I got noone else so IÂ give it to myself it's the only Thing that helps
It's the same thing this pain thing that keeps me from sleeping
And screaming that god I must be motha fucking dreaming
And I can rest in peace and at least cease to be
I see the sickness that's in me
This is all that I can be, I can't breathe as I bleed but it's just me
So I wont call myself Â a playa
Cuz I don't mean to say tha
Shit I do sometimes
It's those two dumb lines

That screw my mind
And it happens oh so fast
I imagined it would last
But it's happened in the past
I just haven't learned from that
But sometimes I don't understand
If this shit was just her plan
Her little joke to make me choke
By use of rope to slit my throat
I bet she hopes I overdose
On loads of coke
But no I wont
I don't do drugs and I don't smoke
But am I ever sober? nope
I need a four leaf clover bro
Before it's really over yo
I wanna know where imma go
Show me my direction
No it's my conception
Always in depression
I feel like she's messin
With me
But bitch please
This shits deep
But it's me

It's just me (x6)

It's cruel for you to laugh
But it's true so do the math
18 lives and then I break nine
When it's cake time
You just make time to hate my great mind
It's a basic hate crime
But I aint tryin
"vegas take a break" fine
Fuck that!
Cut that parrrt out
Cuz I'm going all out
All-a-a-all out
All out right now
Get loud lights out
