Arriving at the ancient gates, watching the road behind
Fog rising fromn the graves, frost rising from inside
Under the banner of wolf the sign of devil
Stigmatized as elder evil

Marching on and on
Upwards the devilhorns

Holding the power to create but the will to destroy
More than a lifestyle more than going out in uniform
Knowing the might of disastrous decomposition
Faustian eyes gazing thee speaking of wisdom

We are the substance
TheyÂ´re the accuser
Every single word is a lie

HoolÂ´em all!
