You're my kind of climate
swing lost paradise
your touch your smell
well you can tell
I ain't talking about reason or hell
swing lost paradise
met a mexican in the kitchen rule your life by the dice

You've got a crazy disposition and you always challenge tradition better to travel than ever arrive being together side by side

Lost in a climate called loneliness it's a crime of passion deep repression message is ringing in my blood the heat within rising

swing lost paradise
I know you've got a butterfly heart and when you fly we're never apart

It's a mortal sin to be killed of love if I die I won't cry

Lose your fear of the unknown then we won't worry about being alone

You're my kind of climate
swing lost paradise
