I'm in a box, I've seem to of put myself there.
I haven't let myself feel love, I'm sorry heart, I've been unfair.
Pictures, flashes of light emulate me but my soul.
If you wanna love me, love me as a whole.
There are thousands of people who know me through this mirage,
And only a few who get to know,
I'm a poetic and fun person, who wishes,
Who wishes that I could show, that I'm no joke.
In this life in my story, I have given all that my heart has let.
I have lived I have loved, I have done all the above
And I have no regrets and yet,
I feel I have done wrong, I feel somewhat immoral,
All these pictures, they seem to say that I'm immortal.
I have lived, I have loved, I have done all the above,
And my hour glass isn't even half full, oh, I just can't wait to live!
I wanna travel and see new place,
Go around the world and meet new face
I wanna be famous and I wanna be me,
I wanna walk on the ground and whisper to the see,
But most importantly, I just wanna be me.
In this life, in my story, I have given all that my heart has let.
I have lived, I have loved, I have done all the above
And I most certainly have no regrets.
