"Failure, Teach Me"

Visit "Failure, Teach Me" on MotoLyrics.com

A real lesson has to cut to the core,
And I still want more to you
The big picture, the whole.

For you to see yourself,
The fear was there to know
Where you kind of ride or fall off
A lonely horse...

[Chorus]
Oh, failure teach me but while I still like
Failure show no more
I'm straight to my back
Failure be contemn[?]
to ditch your best
I'm done, no,
don't be mine, guest.

With the [?] above me
I got a nonmarked horse...
With the seventy-seven I was forgiven
I've only become more...

It feels heaven
when you enter the void
Your pulse in tie with past
And purpose still untold.
For you to know yourself
The [?] was there to hold
You don't need to hide away
We seize every day.
