Holding the walls of this sleep, falling to pieces, broken
Lost in the bits, piecing the image, fading...

Chasing the shadows of what I've believed in, hoping Blind for the truth, hoping in vain

Liar... Liar...

Running your words in my mind, wound that's still bleeding, hurting

Pushing so hard tryin' not to listen, still can't Leaving you fuel a mind that's on fire, burning
Playing the game, dragging me down

Trying to learn, but still here I am

Soaken dipper the drain of trust I stand seeing you Fooling me... Hating myself for believing shit of what you've said to me

Liar!

So had enough of this over and over, again
Sorrow to rage, rage to self-pity, emptying Promising myself I'd never repeat it, once more Down in this hole, hating it all

Trying to learn, but still here I am

Soaken dipper the drain of trust I stand seeing you Fooling me... Hating myself for believing shit of what you've said to me

Liar!

Words of a fuckin' slave of self-centeredness

Liar!

Living a life set for guilt and insanity
Trust - a word that's crushing, lies - a stone that's smashing

Trust - a word that's crushing,

Mind with feelings dragged through insanity

Soaken dipper the drain of trust I stand seeing you Fooling me... Hating myself for believing shit of what you've said to me

Liar!

Words of a fuckin' slave of self-centeredness

Liar!

Living a life set for guilt and insanity

Trust is crushing
