(Verse 1)

My strength is surely failing as trials come left and right,
And in the center I'm now standing, not a trace of hope in sight,
And if tears were only rain drops the universe would be flooding now,
Lord I call you today please don't pass me by

(Chorus)

Hold my hand today
Less I fall, guide my steps all the way
Please hear my call, for the cares of life is all I now see,

Please walk me through them, that's all I ask of thee

(Verse 2)

A storm of fear now surrounds me
A failing heart is all I see, broken dreams
With painful memories the quest for help abides in me
Still I know your standing near me, but I just need your hand in mine,
So lord I ask you today please hear me cry

Repeat (Chorus)
