Verse 1

My strength is surely failing
As trials come both left and right
And in the center I'm now standing
Not a trace of hope in side
And if tears were only rain drops
The universe would be flooding now
So lord I call you today
Please don't pass me by

Chorus

Hold my hands today
Less I fall
Guide my steps all the way
Please hear my call
For the cares of life
Is all I now see
Please walk me through them
That's all I ask of thee

Verse 2

A storm of fear now surrounds me
A failing heart I see I see
Broken hearts and painful memories
The quest for help abides in me
Still I know your standing near me
But I so need your hand in mine
So lord I ask you today
Please hear my cry
