We're not flying high, or lying low
We're caught up in the middle
We need something more, well open that door little by little.
Curiosity, I really don't see anything wrong with it
There's a road and we wont know where it goes,
If we don't go along with it.
Lets run away we can shake this lonely
Lets don't wait till the feelings gone
If you're afraid that's okay just hold me
Loves a train baby we're getting on.
I'm not the kind to give away a heart
But baby come and get it
I've never seen my destiny but now I think I'm looking at it.
Lonely days are hard to put away
But lets not think about those
You wont be back and you wont need to pack,
Just follow where your heart goes
Lets run away we can shake this lonely
Lets don't wait till the feelings gone
If you're afraid that's okay just hold me
Loves a train baby we're getting on.
Well maybe I'm crazy for thinkin I've got a chance
But I'll still love this melody, if all we do is dance, do you wanna dance
Lets run away we can shake this lonely
Lets don't wait till the feelings gone
If you're afraid that's okay just hold me
Loves a train baby we're getting on.
