When the day is finally over and the sun is setting down
And the stars all take their places to watch the lights come on in town
Won't you please, won't you please come around

I'll be waiting on my porch swing with the radio on low Drifting through the curtains, playing something soft and low
Won't you please, won't you please come around

Bridge:
I'd be all right if you just dropped by tonight It'd sure be a treat if you just found your self on my Street
Just say you'd like to come around

It's been awhile since I've seen you and I wonder how you've been Accept my standing invitation to come and swing with me again!
Won't you please, won't you please come around

I don't recall why where not speaking; was it something that we said
Or, have you found another porch swing that interests you instead.
Won't you please, won't you please come around
Won't you please, won't you please come around.
