People used to see me moping and lonely
With my tail dragging in the dust
All broken hearted, turning down parties
Till the invites all dried up

Then like lightning makes a dark sky brighten
My whole life changed for good
Wonder of wonders, out of the thunder
Came a lesson I understood

Chorus:
I love somebody
And They Love Me
I Love Somebody
Never need to fall in love again

People that see me now can't seem to figure out
What has changed about their friend
Have you won the lottery? Could you share your secret please?
I just tell them with a grin

Chorus:
I love somebody
And They Love Me
I Love Somebody
Never need to fall in love again

So any lonely folks out there please don't despair
Hear this message that I bring
If this thing can come to me I know anybody
Can have the chance to sing

Chorus:
I love somebody
And They Love Me
I Love Somebody
Never need to fall in love again
Never need to fall in love again

Chorus:

I love somebody
And They Love Me
I Love Somebody
Never need to fall in love again
