I feel your pain
See it in your eyes
I know it's real
Slow down
There's no escape
So it leads to seem
You can't find a way through life
Whoa whoa whoa
Now you're leaving
Left a note by the sink
You start speeding
Soon there's no time to think
But don't run away
I'm standing here
To say...

Beautiful girl
You're moving too fast
Let me take a hold of the wheel
So you don't crash
Believe in yourself like I believe in you
And I won't let you crash
(I won't let you) I won't let you crash
(I won't let you) you're moving too fast
Please slow down
Slow down before you crash
Slow down yeah
Baby slow down yeah

Your fairy-tale has disappear
Your home's for sale
Stay here (oh oh oh oh)
You're driving pass all the flashing lights
Almost outta gas
So afraid tonight (oh oh oh oh)
But I can see you
When no one else does
It hurts me to
To see you self destruct
But don't run away
I'm standing here
To say...

Beautiful girl
You're moving too fast
Let me take a hold of the wheel
So you don't crash
Believe in yourself like I believe in you
And I won't let you crash
(I won't let you) I won't let you crash
(I won't let you) you're moving too fast
Please slow down
Slow down before you crash yeah

I don't wanna see you crash and burn
We all fall in this hell we learn
But it's how you get up that separates the two
You're so incredible in every way
So unbelievable I wanna hear you say
That you believe in yourself like I believe in you

Beautiful girl
So you don't crash
Believe in yourself like I believe in you
(I won't let you) I won't let you crash
(I won't let you) you're moving too fast
Please slow down
