You've got me trapped in corners
Think I have nowhere to go
But I'll show you, first thing I do
You've got me oh so wrong

You've got me trapped in corners
Think I have nowhere to go
But I'll show you, first thing I do
You got me fucking wrong!

The never ending story of
(How you bring me up just to bring me pain)
Where we going? Seems around
I've had it up, things will never ever change

Say you changed enough for reasons
We can't seem to forget
If you want a story
Here it is

You'd love me
To stay here
I hate you
Can you admit you're wrong?
No, never
It's like you said

The never ending story of
(How you bring me up just to bring me pain)
But this is just one of your games
(I've had it up, you will never ever change)
(Uh baby)

Try to picture moving on
I wanna picture worth my time
A thousand words for every tear of mine

Chasing myself in circles

When will this finally end?

It's like you said

(It's always like you said)

The never ending story of

(How you bring me up just to bring me pain)

But this is just one of your games

(I've had it up, you will never ever change)

(Uh baby)

Try to picture moving on

I wanna picture worth my time

A thousand words for every tear of mine

I'm going through stages

Like roaming through pages

(It's that time

Let me show you something new

Ready?

Here we go)

Over and over again

It's like we're looking and searching for sin

Or something that will take this

Pain away from my brain

So you're talking and yapping and lips are moving but

I am free

You? None

You'd love me

To stay here

I hate you

Can you admit you're wrong?

No, never

It's like you said

The never ending story of
(How you bring me up just to bring me pain)
But this is just one of your games
(I've had it up, you will never ever change)
(Uh baby)
Try to picture moving on
I wanna picture worth my time
A thousand words for every tear of mine

The never ending story of
Where we're going seems so wrong
The never ending story of
But this is just one of your games
(Oo baby)
