We have to carry on!
We have make it for us!
The time we'll never get back!
Let this go!

As I look into your eyes and see you standing there
Tell me something
You are never gonna let this go

Step into your heart, but you don't take it
Please don't leave it
And you're never gonna let this go

All I know is that you want to break it
I just wanna say
Is that your feeling?
You know what you are?
Tell me why did you turn your back right to me
You drive me crazy!

We just carry on our relation that we can't keep anymore
But we have to make it for us 'cause I'm never gonna make it!
If I see your mind without the wall of emotion that I tore
I could get everything back
It's back to me just like that!

All right, the wall of flight in your mind
Only one gets questioned one time
I could get everything back

As I look into your face and see you smiling there
Show me anything
You are never gonna let this go

Maybe I was messed
You think maybe I was wrong

No way to change it
But you are never gonna let this go!

All I know is that you want to break it
I just wanna say
Is that your feeling?
You know what you are?
Tell me why did you turn your back right to me?
You drive me crazy!

We just carry on our relation that we can't keep anymore
But we have to make it for us 'cause I'm never gonna make it
If I see your mind without the wall of emotion that I tore
I could get everything back
It's back to me just like that!

Let's go!

All I know is that you don't wanna break it
Please tell me why did you turn your back right to me?
You drive me crazy!

We just carry on our relation that we can't keep anymore
But we have to make it for us 'cause I'm never gonna make it
If I see your mind without the wall of emotion that I tore
I could get everything back
This time, we will let this go!
