Until the air fill my lungs again this will be known as a game you debate the winner and I will remain free from your cage.

Time passes by,
got me losing it, got me losing it and I won't deny.
I ain't refusing it, never refusing it

I'm reliving my exile, walking away, but i'll never decay
I'm taking my first mile,
I'll scream in your face, I'll never decay.

As fire rise through the atmosphere

Forever, I will be waiting here for you a thousand tears I cry
For your agony

Time runs away,
got me losing it, got me losing it Until comes a day,
I ain't refusing it, never refusing it

Leave the pain behind wash these praying tears the Sun will always rise and bring back the smile.. so stand up your ground and be your savior!
