Wooo

When I see a pretty woman

You know it give me a thrill

And she's tailor made to order

You know I can't stand still

And you won't need a doctor

'cause it'll cure all ills

And when I hear there's a party

You know it gives me a chill

It gets me rockin and a rollin

And I can't stand still

From morning 'til midnight

You know I can't stand still

You know I can't stand still

I can't stand still

You know I can't stand still

I can't stand still

From morning 'til midnight

You know I can't stand still

Ooh yeah

Well when I got a sippin' honey(?) [get to see the honey]

You know I drinkin' my fill

And I remember ???? [wandering out of order]

You know I can't stand still

From morning 'til midnight

You know I can't stand still

Oh yeah

You know I can't stand still

I can't stand still

I can't stand still

You know I can't stand still

From morning 'til midnight

You know I can't stand still

You know I can't stand still

I can't stand still

Baby I can't stand still

I just can't stand still

From morning 'til midnight

You know I can't

You know I can't stand still

(thank you lads, thank you lads, thank you)
