No taking back the things you said when you were giving this up
When you wanted me gone
You call me stupid, call me reckless,
Call me up whenever you need someone to lean on

But then you told me those pretty little lies
You say I've got nothing to worry about
Made me a pawn in the pretty little games you play
But this time I'm calling you out

Whoa oh, whoa oh ooh oh
If I'm in this all (alone, you know)
Exactly where this is headed
Trying to make this right is just a waste of time

Hey little princess,
The town's been talking about us
Like a virus, a spreading disease
(Man that was dumb)
To think that we could be together
Thought I would've known better
Than to let you infect me

But then you told me those pretty little lies
You say I've got nothing to worry about
Made me a pawn in the pretty little games you play
But this time I'm calling you out

Whoa oh, whoa oh ooh oh
If I'm in this all (alone, you know)
Exactly where this is headed
Trying to make this right is just a waste of time

Whoa oh, whoa oh ooh oh
If I'm in this all (alone, you know)
Exactly where this is headed
Whoa oh, whoa oh ooh oh
If I'm in this all (alone, you know)
Exactly where this is headed
Trying to make this right (is just a waste of time)

Trying to make this right is just a waste of time

But then you told me those pretty little lies
You say I've got nothing to worry about
Made me a pawn in the pretty little games you play
But this time I'm calling you out
It's just a waste of time
