I'm not from Williamsburg or Silver Lake I'm not from Williamsburg or Silver Lake
Does anybody have any other obvious complaints?
Does anybody have any other obvious complaints?
Stop trying to get it Stop trying to get it
'Cause I can almost hear you trying to hard yeah
'Cause I can almost hear you trying to hard yeah

They saw the shadow of a figure in the night They saw the shadow of a figure in the night Something unhuman fleeing from the scene of the crime Something unhuman fleeing from the scene of the crime
Those little flashes Those little flashes Just wreak havoc on the mind Just wreak havoc on the mind

I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you
I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you You're standing with your arms crossed You're standing with your arms crossed Nose turned up like you're saying Nose turned up like you're saying
Impress me, good luck Impress me, good luck
Impress me, good luck Impress me, good luck
And I don't have to prove myself to you And I don't have to prove myself to you

They got the search party looking for the ghost of the child They got the search party looking for the ghost of the child But what if he grew up? He never died But what if he grew up? He never died In these old haunts you get the every little feeling In these old haunts you get the every little feeling Like you're under dead eyes, yeah Like you're under dead eyes, yeah

Cryptozoology, you just might exist Cryptozoology, you just might exist Call me in the morning if that misconception still persists Call me in the morning if that misconception still persists Some days I may express myself in curious ways Some days I may express myself in curious ways

I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you
I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you
You're standing with your arms crossed You're
standing with your arms crossed
you're saying
Impress me; good luck Impress me; good luck
Impress me; good luck Impress me; good luck
But I don't have to prove myself to you But I don't have to prove myself to you

I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you
I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you
You're standing with your arms crossed You're
standing with your arms crossed
you're saying
Impress me; good luck Impress me; good luck
Impress me; good luck Impress me; good luck
I don't have to prove myself to you I don't have to prove
myself to you
