She had a face from an animation
Before a cinema screen projection
And if you ever got bad reception
She'd flash a smile and change the perception
She got suspicious of my intention
I didn't give her enough attention
Like I would give into some temptation
I think her head needed medication

I told her on alderaan
That nothing else was going on
(4x)

One day I took her to see the doctor
(Hello, take a seat)
He put her in a cell and locked her
(Yes, he did)
And all the patients, they started to mock her
(That's right)
For ever thinking that someone would leave her

I told her on alderaan
That nothing else was going on
(2x)

I told her on alderaan
(Silver pylons in the sun)
That nothing else was going on
(Silver pylons in the sun)
I told her on alderaan
(Silver pylons in the sun)
That nothing else was going on
(Silver pylons in the sun)

Silver pylons in the sun (2x)

I told her on alderaan
(Silver pylons in the sun)
That nothing else was going on
(Silver pylons in the sun)
(Repeat until end)
