Drunk girls at the bus stop
Sucking on some smokes.
Fallen out the night club
A bunch of rowdy blokes

The back seat of the taxi
Got your hands up in the air
Clutching the fiver I gave you
Not Enough to pay the fare

So pick me up
Put me down
You rough me up
Mess me around

You're so damn tough
I'm I asking much
All I want it is your love.

She's had a couple drinks and she'll have a few more
She won't stop till she ends up on the floor.
She's usually my everything, tonight they're all the same
Tonight she's just the girl who can't remember her name.

Fall into your doorway
Kick your shoes off by the stairs
Hope that you will call me
Just to say you care.

Rumours that you left me
Start to come to light
Wish I had the patience
The time to make it right

So pick me up
Put me down
You rough me up
Mess me around

You're so damn tough

I'm I asking much
All I want it is your love.

She's had a couple drinks and she'll have a few more
She won't stop till she ends up on the floor.
She's usually my everything, tonight they're all the
same
Tonight she's just the girl who can't remember her
name.

Love is such a fine thing
You finish where I start
Remember what I told you
Take your hand from round my heart

Suddenly we're over
Just a call to say goodbye
My body it's still shaking
The fear shows in my eyes.

So pick me up
Put me down
You rough me up
Mess me around

You're so damn tough
I'm I asking much
All I want it is your love.

She's had a couple drinks and she'll have a few more
She won't stop till she ends up on the floor.
She's usually my everything, tonight they're all the
same
name.
