Stepping Away by JayChaz

[Jay:]
Trying to get away
Let the pain of yesterday
(Go) Stepping through the ground

[Rev:]
Caught in the net
Turned up by the fate
I dunno where to go
So I'm gonna start
All over again

(Trying) to find myself
(Dying) in midst of pain
(Trying) To get away from all
Forgetting all 'bout my yesterday

[Jay:]
Trying to get away
Let the pain of yesterday
(Go) Stepping through the ground

And now you never wanna say
Why should I stay this way
I'm lost inside your thoughts

How'd I just move along?
It feels so far away

[Rev:]
I dunno where to go
So I'm lost inside these thoughts again

I dunno where I'm heading for
I'm stepping up to free myself

They say I'm sick of him
Look at 'em
Creeping beneath the burden

When the love decays
We walk undead
(Because of you)

I dunno where I'm heading for
I dunno where I go
But always I've been living in the mercy of all
Now I'm freeing myself
And from all this

[Jay:]
I'm stepping away
(From all the pain inside)
I'm breaking away
(From my lies)
I'm stepping away
(From myself)

[Rev:]
Breaking slowly (slowly) {2x}

[Jay:]
I'm stepping away
(From the pain kept inside)
Stepping away
(Stepping away from my lies)
I'm stepping away
And forgetting all 'bout my yesterday
