"You Are Love"

You see inside my heart
And fill me with your oil of love
You know my every part
And what i need You give enough

I would not have known a love so real
Without the Lamb of God who died for me

There's no love without You
No one could love me more
There's no love without You
Cause You are love

You guide me to that place
And give me more than i deserve
You help me run the race
You are the only God i serve

I tried it on my own
Only to fall on my face

I could not have found myself so free
Without the love of You, it runs so deep
