

Ready, Set, Fall! "The Temple Is Me"

Growl to say, your tone mellifluous
Charming tales, such desperation
Waiting for the sunrise, your lies ablaze
No words to express my feeling
I don't run away but you do
So filthy, your shame will swallow us all

This pain will seal us forever
It's me versus me, you're too hard to defeat,
This pain will seal us forever
Growing empty in her fall I hope

Growl to say, your tone mellifluous
Charming tales, such desperation
Waiting for the sunrise, your lies ablaze
No way I fell so greedy
But you were never afraid
Loneliness? Your tears will swallow us all
This pain will seal us forever

This pain will seal us forever
It's me versus me, you're too hard to defeat,
This pain will seal us forever
Growing empty in her fall I hope

It's too late, I forgot your taste

This pain will seal us forever
It's me versus me, you're too hard to defeat,
This pain will seal us forever
Growing empty in her fall I hope

Growl to say, your tone mellifluous
Charming tales, this night will last forever.
