The city is sleeping, yeah
It's too early for walks
Soon the sun will touch
My smiling face

Do you have memories?
Gussed your mystery year ago
I said take your time and think
Kissed you and flew away

Big bright balloon
Filled with sunshine
Why is my heart
Laughing so loud, so proud?

Do you have memories?
Gussed your mystery year ago
I said take your time and think
Kissed and flew away

I can swim in the air
It's too early for walks, yeah
I don't care what they say
It's too early, too early

Do you have memories?
Gussed your mystery year ago
I said take your time and think
Kissed and flew away
Kissed and flew away
(Kissed and flew away)
