You just lost a good girl
Good girl, good girl
A good girl
You lost today

From such a good thing
Good girl, good girl
From such a good thing
You walked away

Thought I was your guiding light, your angel
What did I know
Was prepared to sacrifice my halo
I was bugging out

Everybody come to me
Telling me the things they seen
Your girlfriend live for the love life
But that's alright if that's what you like

You just lost a good girl
Good girl, good girl
A good girl
You lost today

From such a good thing
Good girl, good girl
From such a good thing
You walked away

How could mistake us having sex with making love
Inside I'll never know
How can I believe you knew what real love was
It's real I said is so

Everybody come to me
Telling me the things they seen
Your girlfriend live for the love life
But that's alright if that's what you like

You just lost a good girl
Good girl, good girl

A good girl
You lost today

From such a good thing
Good girl, good girl
From such a good thing
You walked away

I reminisced you that morning
You held me close said we could rewrite history
So how could you blow it
Song has no notes, so what will the angel sing, guess nothing

Thought I was over my life's biggest hurdle
But oh, no no no
It seems destined these arrangements circles
That's how it goes

Everybody come to me
That's alright if that's what you like

You just lost a good girl
Good girl, good girl
A good girl

From such a good thing
Good girl, good girl
From such a good thing

You just lost a good girl
(Not really a jealous girl)
A good girl
(My heart open doors to a place you can walk through)

From such a good thing
(More precious than any girl)
Good girl, good girl
From such a good thing
You walked away
(Truly your best friend, someone you can talk to)

You just lost a good girl
So I'm single now
