(Lyrics and music by Hank Marvin - 1971)

Butterflies danced on invisible strings Showing wings they borrowed from a rainbow
And a blackbird on high sang a praise to the sky While a light aeroplane sprayed the fields with a silvery
rain

Furry backed bees with a tireless drone Never moan, they're happy to be working
And a grasshopper green could be heard but not seen While a light aeroplane sprayed the fields with a silvery

Chorus:

Fly away, Peter, fly away, Paul, before there's nothing left to fly at all

Take to the sky, higher than high, before the silvery rain begins to fall

Nothing moves now but the swaying ripe corn

Not a dawn is greeted with a bird's song

There's a feather or two from a bird that once flew

Before a light aeroplane sprayed the fields with a silvery rain
