Life can be cruel sometimes
We know it, we've felt it, it plays with our minds
There is no perfection it's safe to say
But is there room in your mind for change?
I know there is and I see you there
And if it's only you, It's all still worth my time!
I SEE YOU SCREAMING... SO I KEEP SCREAMING!!!
I'm not perfect and I'll never be
These words I scream, they're just my beliefs
Somewhere in my heart I feel
I'm not alone, and this is valuable time
I open up my mind to expand my growth
And if you're doing the same,
Then It's all still worth my time!
I SEE YOU SCREAMING... SO I KEEP SCREAMING!!!

In a world so distraught with chaos and hate
We scramble for answers, to ease the pain
It's a rough road to travel,
This life that we were given
But we are out there together,
And together we are screaming!
TOGETHER WE ARE SCREAMING!!!
