I see your face, as I look in the mirror.
I turn around and you're gone.
So here I stand, reminded that it's over.
But I keep holding on.
Your love's like a chain.
And it's wrapped all around me.
But there's nothing on earth I can do.

It's only over for you, oh.
I know I should be strong.
But I know, if I see you again.
It's only over for you, oh.
You can see it in my eyes.
It ain't over for me.
It's only over for you.

I hear your voice, in a room full of strangers.
I close my eyes and you're near.
I've got no choice, till my heart stops it's bleedin'.
And my eyes dry from these tears.
I lie about the pain.
As I walk through the fire.
But nothing can change what is true.

It's only over for you, oh.
I know I should be strong.
But I know, if I see you again.
It's only over for you, oh.
You can see it in my eyes.
It ain't over for me.
It's only over for you.

I didn't have the guts to make you stay.
Now I know it's best this way.
So if you see me on the street.
You better walk away.

Cuz it's only over for you, oh.
I know I should be strong.
But I know, if I see you again.
It's only over for you, oh.

You can see it in my eyes.
It ain't over for me.
It's only over for you.

Girl you know it's over...
But I keep holding on...

It's only over for you, oh.
I know I should be strong.
But I know, if I see you again.
It's only over for you, oh.
You can see it in my eyes.
It ain't over for me.
It's only over for you. FADE
