Tonight's the night, the darkness surrounds you.
The shadows dance, like demons around you.
Don't try to fight, the spell that you're under.
Just hold on tight, and don't let me go.

Just like a rag doll I'll put you to bed.

Just let my fantasies go to your head.

These are wild nights.
On this bed of fire, you burn me down.
These are wild nights.
I live and die for your love.

I'll say the words, that no one dared to.
I'll do the things, that you've been too scared to.
Cuz I can fill, your deepest desire.

I'll make them real, and no one will know.

Now lets pretend that we're lost in a dream.
Don't let it end til you're too hot to scream.

These are wild nights.
On this bed of fire, you burn me down.
These are wild nights.
I live and die for your love.

Just like a ragdoll I'll put you to bed.
Just let my fantasy go to your head.

These are wild nights.
On this bed of fire, you're burning down.
These are wild nights.
I live and die for your love. x3
