When you left me all alone at the record hop
You said you were goin' out for a little soda pop
You were gone for quite a while Half an hour or more
When you got back, man oh man, this is what I saw

Lipstick on your collar
Told a tale on you
Lipstick on your collar
said you'd been untrue
You can bet your bottom dollar that you and I are through
'Cause lipstick on your collar
told a tale on you

Oh yeah
Go!

Standin' by the punch bowl, I had some time to think

The lipstick on your collar was red, but you were wearin' baby pink
Then I looked at Mary Jane
Makeup all a mess
Were you kissing you best friend?
I guess the answer's yes.

Lipstick on your collar
Told a tale on you
Lipstick on your collar
said you'd been untrue
You can bet your bottom dollar
that you and I are through
'Cause lipstick on your collar
told a tale on you
Baby
Told a tale on you
Baby
Told a tale on you
