[Lone Ninja] You have to yield I'm axe wielding your plasma spilled I lack feelings You're captured, killed I blast shields in No help when hell comes foes felt the maelstrom Lone welts you frail bums they're pale and numb They'll succumb on your trail you wail I assail, I'm glum forever dark and grim Like seven cardinal sins the terror's harsh You yell and start to cringe i'll tear apart your kin The hate is dreadful the spectre's marching in Your place of refuge I aint respect you Threw down the gauntlet no escape or rescue A huge cloud of darkness have a fit and tantrum Taunt and approach an apparition, phantom Haunt like a ghost you want to provoke the wrath A big mistake I'm stomp on your throat then laugh A twist of fate Commander of the Forces The vandal is remorseless I'll hand you all your losses I ran into your fortress damage and scorching I'm skilled in combat the savage is stalking Your killed on contact your spirits gone back To where it belongs you'll get you jaw tapped I'm fearless and strong the menace is armed And loaded for bear assailing with bombs And throwing the spears you're frozen with fear My aim will paralyze opponents is scared I maim a batter guys the blade will shatter spines Of competing competitors the rage and wrath are blind I will creep as the predator wash the feet of the emperor My foes is a foot stool I'm cold and I look cruel And chosen for platoon yall samurais With iron helmet and armor are agonized Your squadron fell and was conquered [Lone Ninja] I sneak in the secret passage retreat I'm a beast And savage wreaking havoc you meek and you weak and passive I'm Keeping captives in depths of the dungeon My team is callous and you're severed and bludgeoned Smash and pummel sumos with brass knuckle shukos you laugh and chuckle but in the clash the scuffles brutal Disastrous and cruel from bad to worse The smasher lurks you're blasted when ratchet burst You rivals, dread cannons I'm so, so risky You stifled and flattened I show no pity Secure the perimeter I'm morbid and sinister I torture I'm haunting the villagers It's best that you not doubt you're rocked in the brawl

Technical knockout you drop to the floor
The ninja clash for sport I vow to draw sword
You're in the master's court now bow to warlord
