cowards get bruised and tornd You humans warned hark the war angel My darts are more painful martyrs are strangled You'll moan in the boot camp trifle soldier Lone is a true champ title holder Slay and demolish the foes in carrier Grenades and the rockets explode the barrier Beat your field marshal black and blue Shurikens still harmful bash and bruise You're trapped in burnt sector there's no return I have the worst temper you'll roast and burn Surrounding barbed wires cut through your skin A loud barrage fired you struggle to win You're pummeled and pinned sinister rivals know The scuffle is grim deliver final blow You're dropped from choplifter rot with the locked Prisoners you're watching the clock ticker Beligerent and on the attack The militant will swarm the barracks Quickly disarming killers I'm taking the lead Like Viet Cong guerrillas I wait in the trees Blood'll splash battle opponents infantry The muzzle flash travel the road to victory
