[Lone Ninja] Stormshadow the hunter bombs rattle the bunker swarm castle there's long battles in tundra The savage will hunger for a feast to enjoy Ravage and plunder seek and destroy The killer draws near you dread vague image Guerilla warfare you fled plagued village The rifle's equipped with the scope I strike With a vicious assault the slicer is slitting your throat Rapid fire clash with the assassin For hire, I'll bash until you bastards expire I have to admire and touch majestic thrones The hatchets of dire will cut through flesh and bone The eye is blind Where the mind is absent I'm behind the shrine I'm deguised and rampant Defy entrapment smoke screens appear Heist with bandits foes scream in fear Still waters run deep the look is deceiving Kill, slaughter, hunt, creep you're butchered and bleeding The mugger's besieging with the rampaging mob You suffer and grieving It's a sad day you sob Raid with arms foes prepare to die You may get harmed yo nowhere to hide You fear demise I subdued your squadron Beware the knives I am rude and rotten Bang with the cornershot I open pandora's box Your man's a goner he saw my hands on the glock Can't hang you ought to stop none could surpass Suckers get bashed I hover then I cut and then slash Bear the blunt of wrath I captured an enemy flag Never wanted to clash I'll bash ya then merrily brag I swing the soul blade you'll visit the mausoleum My ring of foes slayed in the pits of the colosseum [Lone Ninja] Creep silently I move past the palace guards Beat violently my dual axe will damage squads It's rather odd that you would challenge the technique Your daggers dodged I slew and battered your best fleet Man your battle station hold a grudge and fury Slam the gavel blatant lone's the judge and jury Sniper's telescopic sight clever smart precise Sever harsh I'm terror's darkest night Embed a toxic fright in the pit of your soul The wizard arose you froze in the shivering cold Your whimpering woes will fall on deaf ears Injuring foes you oaghta get scared Bring horror and fear with cruel intentions And fueled resentment I slew your henchman I use the weapons of mass destruction

You'll catch concussion you bastards done in Slash and cutting bullies get flipped Blast like gunmen I'm fully equipped The lunar eclipse was a sign and omen I rule the aybss under sky and ocean Spy for shogun the ninja sabotage I hid in camouflage and give you battle scars The super soldier severs I'm somber and grim Lose composure never I'm calm as the wind
