[Verse 1: Lone Ninja] I rise high and ascend it's my time to win If at first you don't succeed try try again I bounce back from the trials and tribulations You doubt that it is possible to make it Your squadrons retreating they clobbered and beaten Won't falter and weaken I'm conquering demons I fought with the legion unmerciful with terror I'm slaughtering heathens a personal vendetta Cause great pain you'll catch a bruising Of course I raise Cain it's wrack and ruin You bastards losing it's the verge of apocalypse I burn the metropolis, murdering hostages Great state of panic you quarrel in the fracas Melee and havoc I'm horrible and heinous Impossible to faze this have nerves of steel Observe the real you heard I will scourge with zeal You herbs should kneel I prepare to sever punks I search for thrills like a daredevil stunt Wear a frown a roughneck I come worse than a scoundrel You clowns are suspect I run circles around you Foes get crushed and sever they ties I won't give up I never say die You cat's kidding me cause you thought it was sweet I snatch victory from the jaws of defeat [Hook] In war the most prepared stand a chance look You swore the coast was clear and got ambushed Thought a ghost appeared in the fatal shadows I stalk approaching near we gonna wage in battle (2X) [Verse 2: Lone Ninja] You tried to reject the chief cornerstone But in time I will get a seat on the throne Despite of regrets at peace on my own Reach the farthest zones as I unleash the strongest poems I run amok and defeat your squad It wasn't luck that I beat the odds I Leap and charge look fear in the face I greet barrage with a caring embrace Splendor and grace calm under pressure Sharper and clever it's awkward to ponder surrender Box with contenders and fight to the finish Squash your agenda it's survival of fittest The writings are cryptic decipher the code You rivals are misfits the sniper patrols Vex and thirsty you shouldn't dare test You beg for mercy I couldn't care less Boast with clout roll out the red carpet Close your mouth there's no doubt I shred targets It's about to get started I'm ready to rumble It's plenty of trouble I'm frenzied when my enemies come through Do yourself a favor don't cross my path Bring doom and devastate ya You caught the wrath Pummel awfully ninja don't play Double cross me and dig your own grave [Hook] In war the most prepared stand a chance look You swore the coast was clear and got ambushed Thought a ghost appeared in the fatal shadows I stalk approaching near we gonna wage in battle (2X)
