

Long Story Short

"Forever"

When the waves wash the dreamers to shore
Yeah, I feel like I've been there before
Until you made my dream come to life
We were trying to still our thirst
Run away, cross the line with you first
There is so much about you I love

And it is real, like never before
Let's open that door and find out together
What we've waited for
You're all that I ever wanted and more

You set me free,
You're the fire I want, the peace that I need
You're everything I'd never quite understand
You were made inside my dreams,
All the words I could say could never convey
How endless happy I am to be forever yours

All the miles that were leaving us scarred
Never managed to keep us apart
It was only a matter of time
Now there's nothing that I'd ever change
Not a word that I'd whisper in vain
There is so much about you I love

And it is real, like never before
Let's open that door and find out together
What we've waited for
You're all that I ever wanted and more

You set me free,
You're the fire I want, the peace that I need
You're everything I'd never quite understand
You were made inside my dreams,
All the words I could say could never convey
How endless happy I am to be forever yours
I'm forever yours, forever yours
I'm forever yours, forever yours
I'm forever yours,
Forever yours
