"Hey"

I know we've never had anything before
Just me outside your door
I know that following you around the world doesn't help
It makes me seem helpless

I think I'm seeing things differently

Hey hey hey
I want out
There's no end
I want in
Let's begin
Like we have never begun before
That's me knocking at your door

If you pretend all those messages I left
Were from some other guy who has my name
Then I'll pretend I never saw all those Creed cd's
Sitting in your car

I think I'm seeing things differently

Hey hey hey
I want out
There's no end
I want in
Let's begin
Like we have never begun before
That's me knocking at your door
