How did you know
Where ever i was
I wasn't thinking about you
Well i can't explain
Why i have changed
It's not the smoke
That, or your perfume
Can you quit what you started in the past
Cause you now it isn't real
Well nothing is real
Did you ever really think we had a shot
Cause i knw we could never be forever
You made me feel
In total control
Of the way that i felt about you
But how could i know that i would be wrong
I thought that we'd last til the end
