"Shut Me Out"

I try and clear my mind of you
You're wasting all my days
But i don't know just what to do
Without you in my way
I've spent all year avoiding everything else
They don't matter
I try and get as close as i can
But now i have been shattered
Shut me out and i'll scream a shout
I can't be alone
Say goodbye and i want to die
Don't leave me alone (alone, all alone)
I think about you constantly
I don't have a choice
But when i just want to relax
I need to hear our voice
I've spent all year avoiding everything else
They don't matter
I try and get as close as i can
But now i have been Shattered
