The way you look when you smile it makes me go crazy.
The way you show your love for Matthew, it makes me
admire you even more.

I guess what I'm trying to say is...

The wayy you do everything makes me want you even more. I noticed the way you looked at me when I held Lori. The way you looked at me was inspiring.

So everytime I think I can leave it alone these memories pop into my head, and I can't stop thinking how much you mean to me yeah.

Ever since you left, I've gone in a bad direction.

I tried to change, I had a lot on my mind. You wouldn't tell me anything, so I tried to improvise. I had my own problems going on, I didn't need anything else, but I tried to help you. You shut me out. (And yes you hurt me)

But I'm getting stronger now, I'm working out trying to make my way through life since you decided to go.

The way I was I'm getting rid of, it's time for Ryab 'The Ghost'. So many people miss me it's time to give me back to my family. So the way I end this song is just like this. The way you left I thought I could manage being alone, but it's not what I wanted. You seem to hate me now. So the last thing I'll say to you ever again is... I Love You.
