I've killed everyone in here!
You're dead... you just don't know it yet!
Ranting inhibitions! Ranting inhibitions!
I've killed everyone in here!
You're dead... you just don't know it yet!
Poisoned philosophy, a rant and a killing spree
I hate in exchange of the glares from gravely uninformed
Should another to the same, I say he's wrong to
But it's me in my own head, defending my own rage
Poisoned philosophy, a rant and a killing spree
Unfair and biased in a fit to reach the top
When out of victims and drive, I'll do like my father:
Get drunk with some pain pills, and die!
I've killed everyone in here!
You're dead... you just don't know it yet!
Ranting inhibitions! Ranting inhibitions!
I've killed everyone in here!
You're dead... you just don't know it!
